What else happened in 2019?

- We hosted the National Diaper Bank Network's annual pre-conference dinner at our new warehouse and office space in Lower Price Hill
- Steve Chabot gave a speech about our organization on the House Floor

I feel it was a blessing to receive so many diapers. I live on a tight budget and free diapers helped me be able to buy more food this month.

OUTCOMES

When families receive free diapers from Sweet Cheeks, it allows them to better provide for those they love. Caregivers can go to work, more food is on the table, and household stress goes down. Below is a chart of how families said our diapers helped them in 2019.

Brandstetter Spirit Award

Presented at our annual fundraiser, this award is given to an individual who exemplifies a spirit of volunteerism and giving, as originally showcased by SCDB's Board Chair, Steve Brandstetter. In 2019, the award was presented to Rick & Julie Kantor, who have supported SCDB with their time, talent, treasure, connections and encouragement for YEARS and continue to make amazing things happen for us. Through Rick and Julie, amazingly transformative leaps forward have been able to happen, and thousands more babies in Greater Cincinnati have clean diapers because of them.
